The APR will vary based on an assessment of your personal financial circumstances. Rates and payments will vary. At the end of your PCP agreement, you have three options: pay the total outstanding balance and take ownership of the bike; or hand the bike back (there may be a charge for excess mileage and damages); or you may be eligible to re-finance your residual value with a new motor finance agreement. You should not borrow more than you can afford to repay as doing so can cause you financial difficulties.
